Shreveport Police Department Addresses Recent Domestic Violence Arrests

Jeremy Jefferson & Nehemiah Jones

The Shreveport Police Department would like to remind the public that domestic violence remains a serious and troubling issue within our community. SPD officers recently made two arrests in connection with violent domestic incidents, underscoring the importance of peaceful conflict resolution.

On June 9, officers arrested Jeremy Jefferson, who has been charged with the following offenses:

- One count of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment
- One count of False Imprisonment
- One count of Interfering with Communication of 911
- One count of Resisting an Officer

These charges reflect the severity and potential danger of domestic violence situations.

On the same day, Nehemiah Jones was also taken into custody and charged with:

- One count of Domestic Abuse Battery by Strangulation

The Shreveport Police Department encourages all individuals to seek nonviolent resolutions to conflicts. Domestic violence is not only dangerous but can have long-lasting legal and personal consequences—including prohibitions on firearm possession, damage to personal relationships, and significant impacts on employment and housing opportunities.

If you or someone you know is experiencing domestic violence, help is available. Please contact law enforcement or a local support service immediately.
