Shreveport Police Arrest Man for Sexual Battery at Local Nightclub

The Shreveport Police Department has arrested 33-year-old Demetrius McCoy following an incident that occurred in the early morning hours of Saturday, June 7, 2025.

At approximately 1:06 a.m., officers responded to Club Gemini, located at 4901 Greenwood Road, in reference to a reported battery. Upon arrival, officers learned that a female patron alleged she was inappropriately grabbed by a male suspect without her consent while inside the establishment.

Through the course of the investigation, officers identified Demetrius McCoy as the individual responsible. McCoy was taken into custody and charged with one count of sexual battery.

According to Louisiana law, sexual battery is defined as the intentional touching of the anus or genitals of the victim by the offender, or of the offender by the victim, directly or through clothing, when such act is committed without the victim's consent or under specific circumstances outlined in the law.

McCoy was transported to the Shreveport City Jail without incident.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to thoroughly investigating all allegations of sexual misconduct and encourages anyone who believes they have been a victim of a similar crime to contact our office at 318-673-7300. Anonymous tips can also be submitted through Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via the P3 Tips app.
