Shreveport Police Seek Two Suspects in Separate Retail Theft Investigations

Curtis Newman and Joseph Coleman

Property Crimes detectives with the Shreveport Police Department are actively searching for two men wanted in connection with separate thefts from a local business.

Curtis Newman and Joseph Coleman are both wanted for felony thefts that occurred at the Home Depot located at 110 E. Bert Kouns Industrial Loop.

Curtis Newman is wanted for two counts of felony theft as a habitual offender. He was identified by investigators due to his history as a repeat retail theft suspect. A review of Newman's criminal history revealed eight prior theft arrests and four convictions. Additionally, he currently faces three pending theft charges in Bossier District Court. Detectives have obtained two warrants for his arrest related to recent thefts from the store.

Joseph Coleman is also wanted for theft from the same location. He was identified after presenting a Louisiana ID card during a fraudulent return. Investigators have issued an arrest warrant for one count of felony theft for Coleman.

Retail theft affects local businesses and consumers alike. The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to investigating and prosecuting these crimes.

If you have any information about the whereabouts of Curtis Newman or Joseph Coleman, please contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Callers may remain anonymous.
