Domestic Violence Detectives Arrest Violent Offender

Eudarrius Gooden

On May 9, 2025, Shreveport Police Department officers responded to a report from a victim alleging that, the father of her child, committed an intentional act of violence against her without her consent. The incident occurred in the presence of their child, who is 13 years old or younger.

The victim reported that Gooden strangled her until she lost consciousness. She regained awareness on the ground in a pool of blood and was transported to Willis Knighton Medical Center for treatment of her injuries. Medical records were obtained and reviewed as part of the investigation.

Following a thorough review of all evidentiary materials, an arrest warrant was issued for Gooden on charges of Battery of a Dating Partner with Child Endangerment, Battery of a Dating Partner with Serious Bodily Injury, and Battery of a Dating Partner with Strangulation.

On June 24, 2025, the Shreveport Police Warrants Unit located and arrested Eudarrius Gooden.
