Shreveport Police Address Rise in Domestic Violence Cases

Adriana Esther, Amerdice Fuller, Tasha Henderson, Christopher Mobley, Edriel Saxon & Donze Summers

The Shreveport Police Department continues to see a troubling pattern of domestic violence within our community. At present, most of the violent crime that our officers respond to involves disputes between household members. This is a cycle we must break together—as a department and as a community.

In recent days, the following individuals have been arrested in connection to domestic-related incidents:

- Adriana Esther was arrested on June 22 for one count of Domestic Abuse Aggravated Assault.
- Amerdice Fuller was arrested on June 23 in connection with a domestic dispute involving residents of the same household.
- Tasha Henderson was arrested on June 22 for Violation of a Protective Order and Domestic Abuse Battery by Aggravated Assault.
- Christopher Mobley was arrested on June 22 for Home Invasion related to a domestic incident.
- Edriel Saxon was arrested on June 19 for three counts of Domestic Abuse Battery by Aggravated Assault with Child Endangerment.
- Donze Summers was arrested on June 24 for Domestic Abuse Battery with a Weapon, Domestic Abuse Battery, and Distribution of Narcotics.

The Shreveport Police Department urges anyone experiencing domestic violence to seek help immediately. Love should never hurt. If you or someone you know is in a violent relationship, please contact local authorities or a domestic violence resource center for assistance. Together, we can work toward a safer, stronger Shreveport.
