Shreveport Police Make Arrest in Violent Home Invasion

Lawrence Thomas

Shreveport Police patrol officers have made an arrest following a violent home invasion that occurred on June 30, 2025.

Just after 10:00 p.m., officers were dispatched to the 8400 block of David Drive in reference to a disturbance. Upon arrival, officers learned that Lawrence Thomas, the ex-boyfriend of a female resident, had arrived at the home and observed another male inside the residence. Thomas reportedly forced entry into the home through a laundry room door and charged at the male with a screwdriver.

Thanks to the quick response of officers, Thomas was taken into custody at the scene without further incident. Fortunately, no serious injuries were reported.

Thomas has been charged with one count of Home Invasion.

This incident serves as a reminder of the dangers officers face and the importance of rapid response. The Shreveport Police Department commends the patrol officers involved for their swift and professional actions that helped prevent a potentially deadly situation.
