Shreveport Police Department Arrests 13 for DWI Over Holiday Weekend

The Shreveport Police Department's DWI Unit remained vigilant throughout the Independence Day holiday weekend, resulting in the arrest of 13 individuals for driving while intoxicated.

On July 3rd, officers arrested Charles Batts, Christian Carrasco, and Mack Covell for DWI and multiple other charges.

On July 4th, Caitlin Reynolds, Cody Wilson, and Pablo Zertuche were taken into custody for DWI.

On July 5th, Kenya Gladney, Courtland Jimerson, Shatarica Little, Elbert White, and Tyrell Wyse were arrested.

And on July 6th, officers arrested Damarcus McCoy and Trasha Williams for DWI-related offenses.

Chief Wayne Smith commended the DWI Unit for their outstanding efforts to keep our roads safe, stating, "The dedicated work of our officers over the holiday weekend likely prevented serious injuries or fatalities. We will continue our aggressive enforcement of DWI laws to protect the citizens of Shreveport."

The Shreveport Police Department reminds everyone that driving under the influence is not only illegal but also dangerous. Plan ahead, use a designated driver, and help us keep our community safe.
