Domestic Violence Suspect Wanted

Kardaryl Wesley

Shreveport Police Domestic Violence Detectives are actively searching for Kardaryl Wesley, who is now wanted for one count of Domestic Abuse Battery following a disturbing incident that occurred earlier this month.

On July 2, 2025, officers were contacted by a female victim who reported that she was awakened by her live-in boyfriend, Kardaryl Wesley, striking her with closed fists. The victim stated that she had been asleep and that there had been no prior argument or provocation leading up to the attack. She further advised officers that Wesley may have been under the influence of drugs at the time of the assault.

The victim was able to escape the home and seek safety at a relative's residence, where she contacted authorities. Officers observed visible injuries on the victim upon arrival. At the time of the incident, a child under the age of 13 was also present in the home.

Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Kardaryl Wesley is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373. Callers may remain anonymous.
