Repeat Offender Still Wanted for Multiple Financial Crimes

Linda Fitzpatrick

The Shreveport Police Department is actively seeking Linda Fitzpatrick, a repeat offender who remains wanted in connection with several financial crimes.

Fitzpatrick is accused of committing bank fraud involving Barksdale Federal Credit Union on May 29, 2025. This incident followed a previous bank fraud case from earlier in May, for which a warrant was issued on June 9, 2025. During the investigation, detectives also uncovered a separate incident involving felony theft of over $11,000 from another victim.

As a result, Fitzpatrick now has the following active warrants:

- Two (2) counts of bank fraud
- One (1) count of felony theft

Despite ongoing efforts, Fitzpatrick remains at large.

The Shreveport Police Department is urging anyone with knowledge of Linda Fitzpatrick's whereabouts to come forward. If you see her or know where she may be, please contact SPD at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373. Tips can be submitted anonymously, and Crime Stoppers may offer a cash reward for information leading to her arrest.

Fitzpatrick poses a continued risk to the financial safety of others. If you are employed in the banking industry or other financial services, please remain vigilant and alert authorities immediately if she attempts any transactions.

We appreciate the public's assistance in helping remove this repeat offender from our streets.
