Domestic Dispute Leads to Arrest on Multiple Charges

Treyshawn Stephenson

On July 20th, Shreveport Police officers responded to a call regarding a stolen vehicle near the intersection of Wallace Avenue and Vivian Street. Upon arrival, officers discovered that the vehicle had reportedly been taken during a domestic dispute.

Through the course of the investigation, it was determined that Treyshawn Stephenson had allegedly taken a vehicle belonging to his boyfriend during the altercation. Further investigation revealed that Stevenson had also reportedly made threats involving a firearm during the dispute.

At the conclusion of the investigation, Stevenson was arrested and charged with the following:

- One count of Theft of a Motor Vehicle
- One count of Aggravated Assault of a Dating Partner
- One count of Aggravated Assault with a Firearm

Although he was armed with two guns, no serious injuries were reported during this incident.

Domestic violence remains a persistent issue in our community and can take many forms—emotional, physical, and even financial. The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to holding offenders accountable and supporting victims through every step of the process.
