Repeat Sex Offender Arrested in Connection with Child Rape Investigation-Arrested

Philip Daniels

Shreveport Police Sex Crimes Detectives have arrested a man in connection with a disturbing rape investigation involving a 10-year-old female.

The investigation began in June 2025, when detectives were alerted to a report of sexual assault. Through the course of their investigation, detectives identified Philip Daniels as the primary suspect.

Daniels is no stranger to law enforcement. He was previously identified as a suspect in a 2001 forcible rape case and has been arrested for obscenity in 2017, 2018, and 2023.

On July 26, 2025, with the assistance of patrol officers, Daniels was located and taken into custody in the 6800 block of Raspberry Lane. He has since been charged with one count of First-Degree Rape and one count of Molestation of a Juvenile.

Due to the severity of this case, the charges could potentially qualify for the death penalty if a conviction is secured.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting our most vulnerable citizens and will continue to pursue justice for victims of these heinous crimes.
