On July 26, 2025, officers with the Shreveport Police Department responded to the 2800 block of Anna Street in reference to a juvenile complaint. Upon arrival, officers located a 15-year-old female with visible bruising and scratches across her body.

Detectives with the department's Youth Services Bureau were contacted and initiated an investigation. As a result, two individuals—identified as Lula Shine and Jackquenette Hopkins—were arrested and each charged with one count of Cruelty to a Juvenile.
