Shreveport Police Seek Two Suspects in Separate White-Collar Crime Cases

Telisa White & Isaac Johnson

Shreveport Police Department White Collar Crimes Detectives are asking for the public's help in locating two individuals wanted in unrelated investigations.

Case 1 – Telisa White

Detectives have obtained a warrant for Telisa White, wanted for one count of Monetary Instrument Abuse in connection with a June 30th incident. White is accused of depositing a check that was determined to be fraudulent. She was identified through bank surveillance footage.

Case 2 – Isaac Johnson

Detectives are also seeking Isaac Johnson, wanted for one count of Forgery following a July 22nd incident. Johnson is accused of altering a Western Union check by placing his name on it. He was identified using store surveillance footage.

In both cases, arrest warrants have been issued. Shreveport Police urge the community to assist in locating these suspects before they are able to cause further harm.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Telisa White or Isaac Johnson is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Crime Stoppers tipsters can remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward.
