Three Arrested Following Robbery at Dick's Sporting Goods

Cedric Edwards, Demia Broadway, and Zion Green

On August 18, 2025, Shreveport Police officers responded to a theft in progress at Dick's Sporting Goods located at 7543 Youree Drive. Upon arrival, officers learned that multiple individuals had fled the store after stealing merchandise.

The suspects, identified as Demia Broadway, Zion Green, and Cedric Edwards, were apprehended a short time later. Initial reports indicated a theft; however, during the investigation, officers determined that when store staff attempted to intervene, the suspects threatened to shoot them. These threats placed employees in fear for their lives, elevating the offense to Second Degree Robbery.

These types of crimes will be addressed with diligence and determination. Individuals who choose to terrorize businesses and instill fear in our community will be held accountable.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting our residents, businesses, and visitors from those who threaten the safety and security of our city.
