Shreveport Police Department Gearing Up for National Night Out

The Shreveport Police Department is preparing to take part in the upcoming National Night Out, scheduled for Tuesday, October 7, 2025. This annual event is designed to strengthen the bond between law enforcement and the community while promoting neighborhood spirit and unity in the fight against crime.

National Night Out offers residents the chance to host block parties, cookouts, and other neighborhood gatherings, providing officers with an opportunity to interact directly with community members in a positive and informal setting. The initiative aims to foster trust, encourage communication, and enhance public safety throughout Shreveport.

Community members who wish to host a National Night Out event are encouraged to register their block party and submit any requests for assistance or resources through the following link:

Shreveport Police Chief Wayne Smith emphasized the importance of community engagement:

“National Night Out is a great opportunity for our officers and citizens to come together and strengthen the partnerships that keep our neighborhoods safe. We look forward to connecting with residents across the city.”
