SPD Violent Crimes Detectives Make ANOTHER Arrest In August 3 Homicide

Dion Randle Lloyd Graggs

The Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit has arrested a suspect in connection with the August 3, 2025, homicide in the 1000 block of Dalzell Street.

Officers initially responded to the scene and found SherPatrick Washington deceased from multiple gunshot wounds. Following a thorough investigation, detectives identified Dion Randle (09/22/1970) as a suspect. Randle has been charged with one count of principal to second-degree homicide.

As part of the ongoing investigation, on Thursday, August 28, 2025, detectives contacted Lloyd Graggs (01/02/1992) at the Shreveport Police Department. Items of evidentiary value were collected, and witness statements regarding the events of August 3 were documented. These investigative advances led to the arrest of the suspect in the murder of SherPatrick Washington. Graggs was placed in custody for Second-Degree Murder at approximately 2:30 PM and transported to Shreveport City Jail for booking.

The Shreveport Police Department commends the hard work and dedication of the Violent Crimes detectives in bringing this case to this stage. The Department also thanks the community for its assistance and encourages anyone with additional information to contact the Violent Crimes Unit.
