SHREVEPORT POLICE DEPARTMENT SEEKING SUSPECT IN VIOLENT DOMESTIC INCIDENT

Latravion Hinton

On August 10, 2025, the reporting person contacted the Shreveport Police Department and advised that her ex-boyfriend, later identified as Latravion Hinton, struck her in the face causing injury while she arrived at his residence to pick up their daughter. Officers observed visible injuries to the victim during the on-scene interview (documented on officer Axon body-worn camera). The victim reported that the offender returned to the location, choked her and threatened to kill her while holding an AK-47, which he then pointed at her during the threat.

Records show the offender was previously arrested on December 15, 2024, on a Domestic Abuse Battery charge involving this same victim.

The Shreveport Police Department is actively seeking Latravion Hinton and asks anyone with information about his whereabouts or who may have witnessed the incident to contact police immediately. Do not approach the suspect — he should be considered dangerous. Warrants for:

- (1) Count — Domestic Abuse Battery (Child Endangerment), La. R.S. 14:35.3(I)
- (1) Count — Domestic Abuse Battery (Second Offense), La. R.S. 14:35.3(D)
- (1) Count — Aggravated Assault (Domestic Abuse Battery), La. R.S. 14:37.7
- (1) Count — Violation of Protective Orders, La. R.S. 14:79
