Shreveport Police Officers Intervene in Violent Domestic Incident

Danthony Thompson

On September 9, 2025, just after 5:30 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a domestic disturbance in the 4400 block of Pines Road.

The victim reported that her boyfriend, Danthony Thompson, threatened to kill her while the two were driving. Fearing for her safety, she exited the vehicle and ran into a nearby gas station. Thompson allegedly chased her inside as she attempted to hide. According to reports, Thompson continued to make threats to kill both the victim and himself, placing her in fear for her life.

When officers arrived, Thompson began acting erratically and attempted to harm himself. He also made threats toward officers on the scene, stating that he would attempt to hurt them. Thompson was transported to a local medical facility for evaluation, where he made additional threats, claimed gang affiliation, and stated that he would shoot officers. He then spat multiple times on officers and medical staff.

After being cleared medically, Thompson was transported to the Shreveport City Jail. His criminal history includes multiple significant arrests, including possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, multiple counts of simple battery, carnal knowledge of a juvenile, resisting an officer, and domestic abuse battery.

In connection with this incident, Thompson has been charged with:

- Domestic Abuse Aggravated Assault
- Simple Kidnapping
- Simple Battery
- Two Counts of Resisting an Officer with Force or Violence

The Shreveport Police Department commends the quick response of officers who prevented further harm to the victim, medical staff, and themselves during this dangerous encounter.
