Shreveport Police Department Issues Warrants in Separate Investigations

Kevin D. Bowman Jr. & Cortrinia Hood

Shreveport Police detectives with the White Collar Crimes Unit have obtained an arrest warrant for Cortrinia Hood on one count of Identity Theft.

The investigation began when a victim noticed inconsistencies on her credit report and discovered a loan in the amount of $12,608.66 through Good Leap that she did not authorize. The victim was listed as a co-signer on the loan, which was taken out for a septic tank. Following the investigation, a warrant was issued for Hood's arrest.

In a separate case, Shreveport Police Property Crimes detectives have obtained a felony warrant for Kevin D. Bowman Jr. 8-4-79) on one count of Illegal Possession of Stolen Things.

On September 15, 2025, officers responded to a report of a stolen company vehicle belonging to Earnest Contracting LLC from the 3800 block of West 70th Street around 2:30 a.m. The vehicle's tracking system led officers to quickly recover it at the Chevron located at 5203 Monkhouse Drive. Following their investigation, detectives secured an arrest warrant for Bowman.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Cortrinia Hood or Kevin Bowman Jr. is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Crime Stoppers offers cash rewards for information leading to the arrest of wanted suspects.
