Man Wanted in Theft of Firearm

Karvasca Lewis

The Shreveport Police Department has issued an arrest warrant for Karvasca Lewis in connection with a stolen firearm.

On June 4, 2025, a victim reported his firearm missing after it was taken without his consent near the intersection of Babylon Street and Gideon Street.

On September 22, 2025, detectives determined that Lewis had pawned the firearm at Discount Jewelry and Loan for $250. Lewis falsely claimed ownership of the firearm when completing the pawn transaction. The pawn shop owner reported the fraudulent activity and wished to press charges, and an employee confirmed Lewis conducted the transaction.

Lewis now faces charges of Illegal Possession of a Stolen Firearm and Theft.

Anyone with information about this case is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300.
