City of Shreveport to auction off surplus vehicles and equipment

The City of Shreveport will auction off more than 30 vehicles and surplus equipment this Saturday, May 3, at The Lawler Auction Facility, 7781 Highway 1 North.

The auction starts at 9 a.m. and will include cars, trucks, lawn equipment, exercise equipment, welding equipment, a crane and computers. The surplus auction consists of items that have been retired or are no longer needed by city departments, ranging from police and fire to public works and the airport.

This auction will also include surplus vehicles from the Bossier Parish Sheriff's Office and the assets of a welding and fabrication shop out of Morgan City, La., that filed bankruptcy and has been ordered sold by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. There are more than 300 lots to be auctioned off on Saturday.

A preview and inspection time has been set up for tomorrow (Friday) from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and interested bidders can check out the merchandise online at www.lawlerauction.com. The auction is open to the public and buyers can bid in person or online via the website as well.

For more information, call (318) 929-7003.
