Wanted Domestic Violence Suspect Arrested in California

Kendrick Jones

Domestic violence continues to plague our city; however, the Shreveport Police Department is proud to report that Kendrick Jones has been arrested in Long Beach, California.

It is especially fitting that an offender like Jones was apprehended during Domestic Violence Awareness Month, as his arrest underscores our ongoing commitment to protecting victims and holding violent offenders accountable.

Jones was wanted in connection with a brutal attack that occurred on July 6, 2025, in the 4200 block of Henry Street. He is accused of repeatedly striking a woman in the face with brass knuckles during a domestic dispute. The violent act took place in the presence of two juveniles, ages 16 and 17, who attempted to intervene and were injured in the process.

Following the investigation, detectives obtained warrants for two counts of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment and one count of Battery of a Dating Partner with a Dangerous Weapon.

Jones' capture was made possible through the efforts of Shreveport-Caddo Crime Stoppers, who received multiple tips regarding his whereabouts. The information was relayed to the Shreveport Police Warrant Unit, who coordinated with the Long Beach Police Department to locate and arrest Jones.

Jones will be extradited back to Louisiana to face charges for his crimes.

The Shreveport Police Department thanks the public for their continued cooperation and reminds citizens that anonymous tips can be submitted to Shreveport-Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373 or through the P3 Tips app.
