Shreveport Police Seek Suspect in Bank Fraud Investigation

Samuel Thomas

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department's White Collar Crimes Unit are actively searching for Samuel Thomas, who is accused of negotiating multiple fraudulent checks from a local credit union.

Through a combination of surveillance footage and document review, detectives were able to identify Thomas as the suspect. On October 22, 2025, an arrest warrant was issued charging Thomas with one count of bank fraud.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Samuel Thomas is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300.

The Shreveport Police Department reminds the public that all suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
