SPD Violent Crimes Unit Seeks Public Help Identifying Suspect in Walgreens Assault

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit are asking for the public's assistance in identifying a man responsible for a violent attack on a Walgreens employee.

On May 25, 2025, in the 300 block of Southfield Road, the suspect became involved in a verbal altercation with a Walgreens cashier after being asked to show identification to purchase alcohol. The situation escalated when the suspect went behind the counter and struck the employee multiple times, resulting in several injuries.

Despite extensive investigative efforts, detectives have not been able to identify the suspect. The video of the incident is available for viewing on the Shreveport Police Department's Facebook page.

Anyone with information regarding the suspect's identity is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373. Callers can remain anonymous, and information leading to an arrest may be eligible for a cash reward.

The Shreveport Police Department appreciates the community's help in holding violent offenders accountable.
