Shreveport Police Arrest Two Following Assault on Youree Drive

On November 1, 2025, at approximately 9:00 a.m., officers with the Shreveport Police Department's Patrol Division responded to Willis-Knighton Pierremont in reference to a reported assault and battery.

Upon arrival, officers contacted a female victim who reported that she had been attacked earlier at 8001 Youree Drive by two females. During the altercation, one of the suspects allegedly picked up an iron and struck the victim several times, causing a large gash to the top of her head. The victim advised that both females continued to assault her during the incident, which reportedly stemmed from a dispute involving an ex-boyfriend.

Violent Crimes Detectives responded to the hospital and spoke with the attending emergency room physician, who stated that the victim sustained approximately a nine-inch laceration to her head, requiring staples for treatment.

Through the course of their investigation, detectives were able to identify and arrest both individuals responsible for the attack.

- Dyaushaua Jones (B/F, 01/08/1984) was arrested for Aggravated Battery.
- Roshunquel Jackson (B/F, 03/24/1993) was arrested for Principal to Aggravated Battery.

Chief Wayne Smith commended the swift and precise work of both the Patrol Division and the detectives involved in bringing this case to a quick resolution.
