Shreveport Police Arrest Habitual Offender on Burglary, Theft, and Fraud Charges

Charles Hilson

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department have arrested Charles Hilson on multiple charges, including burglary, theft, narcotics violations, and access device fraud.

The investigation began with Shreveport Police detectives and later developed into a joint effort with the Shreveport-Caddo White Collar Crimes Task Force, also known as the Financial Crimes Task Force, which was investigating a related case of access device fraud.

Hilson, a long-time habitual offender, has more than 15 prior property-related arrests, including multiple arrests for burglary, robbery, and theft. He now faces two counts of access device fraud, one count of burglary, and narcotics-related charges.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to investigating and apprehending repeat offenders who target members of our community.
