Sex Crimes Arrest

Destiny Church

On October 23, 2025, Shreveport Police Department Sex Crimes detectives initiated an investigation following a reported sexual assault. During the investigation, the victim identified Destiny Church as the individual responsible for posting explicit videos of her on Facebook without her consent.

On November 18, 2025, detectives interviewed Ms. Church regarding the allegations. After being advised of her rights, she provided statements implicating herself in the offense. She was subsequently taken into custody and arrested for Nonconsensual Disclosure of a Private Image.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting victims of sexual crimes and holding offenders accountable.
