SPD Issues Arrest Warrants in Financial Crimes Investigation

Samuel Thomas and Jacaray Roebuck

The Shreveport-Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force has issued arrest warrants for Samuel Thomas and Jacaray Roebuck following an investigation into fraudulent checks passed at a local business.

On September 29, 2025, Thomas and Roebuck entered Thrifty Liquor, located at 6709 Pines Road, at separate times and negotiated checks made out in the name of Terry's Mobile Home Service. Days later, both checks were returned as altered and fictitious, resulting in a financial loss to the business.

Detectives reviewed video surveillance, still photographs, and additional evidence provided by the store. The individuals seen in the footage were confirmed to match previously known photos of Thomas and Roebuck.

On December 1, 2025, detectives obtained arrest warrants for both individuals on one count each of Monetary Instrument Abuse.

Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Samuel Thomas or Jacaray Roebuck is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Crime Stoppers allows callers to remain anonymous.
