Shreveport Police Investigating Fatal Domestic Incident; Person of Interest Sought

Evantavious Deon Williams

On December 13, 2025, at approximately 12:02 a.m., Shreveport Police Patrol officers and Shreveport Fire Department medics responded to a domestic trouble physical call in the 200 block of West 69th Street, within the Shreveport city limits of Caddo Parish.

Upon arrival, officers learned that a 19-year-old female was found unconscious and unresponsive in a bedroom following a domestic dispute with her boyfriend, Evantavious Deon Williams. Officers immediately entered the residence and began CPR until SFD medics arrived. The victim was transported to Ochsner LSU Health in critical, life-threatening condition.

Violent Crimes investigators were notified and briefed on the incident. A witness at the scene was detained after advising officers that he observed the victim and Williams engaged prior to the incident. The witness further stated that Williams fled the scene when family members contacted 911.

Detectives responded to Ochsner LSU Health to speak with the victim and were later informed that she had been pronounced deceased.

The investigation remains ongoing. Detectives are actively attempting to locate and interview Evantavious Deon Williams, who is considered a person of interest in this incident. Williams has an outstanding warrant in Caddo Parish as well as an NCIC entry from Texas. He was last seen shortly after midnight on December 13, 2025, leaving the area of the incident at 209 West 69th Street.

Detectives are continuing to work to determine the cause of death.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Evantavious Deon Williams or details related to this incident is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Tips can be provided anonymously.
