Shreveport Police Obtain Arrest Warrant in Financial Crimes Investigation

The Shreveport Police Department has obtained an arrest warrant for Phillip Sykes following an investigation conducted by the Shreveport–Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force.

Detectives were investigating multiple fraudulent transactions connected to Mr. Sykes. As part of the investigation, Sykes agreed to meet with investigators on Friday to discuss the allegations. However, he failed to appear for the scheduled meeting and has since been uncooperative with detectives.

As a result of the evidence gathered during the investigation, an arrest warrant has been issued for Phillip Sykes for one count of forgery.

Anyone with information regarding his whereabouts is asked to contact the Shreveport Police Department or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Tips can be submitted anonymously.
