Shreveport Police Arrest Convicted Felon Following Domestic Violence Call

On December 18, just after 8:00 p.m., officers with the Shreveport Police Department responded to a reported domestic violence incident in the 4300 block of Haywood Place.

While en route, officers were advised that a male and his girlfriend were actively fighting and that the male was possibly under the influence of drugs. Upon arrival, officers were able to safely take the male subject, identified as Terrence McHenry, into custody. Fortunately, no one involved sustained serious injuries.

During the investigation, officers discovered that McHenry was in possession of a firearm. Further investigation revealed that McHenry is a multiple-time convicted felon, making his possession of a firearm illegal under state and federal law.

McHenry was arrested and charged with Felon in Possession of a Firearm.

The Shreveport Police Department continues to take domestic violence calls seriously and remains committed to ensuring the safety of all individuals involved.

Anyone experiencing domestic violence is encouraged to seek help and report incidents immediately.
