Arrest Made in Strange Incident

Sedrick Young

On December 22, just after 5:00 p.m., officers with the Shreveport Police Department were dispatched to the 9300 block of Baird Road in reference to an assault.

Upon arrival, officers located a male victim who was covered in blood. The victim reported that he had been involved in a physical altercation with his girlfriend's ex-boyfriend, identified as Sedrick Young. According to the investigation, Young arrived at the residence and entered the home, where a physical confrontation ensued.

During the altercation, Young reportedly bit the victim on the cheek, causing significant bleeding, and produced a knife, cutting the victim on the hand. Officers observed injuries consistent with the victim's account, including a cut to the hand, and located a large knife inside a trash can at the residence.

Officers took Young into custody at the scene. Following further investigation, he was placed under arrest and charged with one count of Aggravated Second Degree Battery.

The investigation remains ongoing.
