Shreveport Police Arrest Suspect Following Violent Domestic Incident

TanShanika Carter

Shreveport Police have made an arrest following a domestic-related incident that occurred on December 23, just before midnight, in the 1400 block of Grigsby Street.

Responding officers determined that TanShanika Carter arrived at the residence of a romantic partner, forced entry by kicking in the door, and entered the home without consent. Once inside, Carter allegedly assaulted the victim and caused damage to property within the residence.

Witnesses at the scene reported that they attempted to intervene and stop Carter but were unsuccessful. During the investigation, officers learned that the victim had been attempting to end the relationship via text message prior to the incident.

A juvenile was present during the altercation and reportedly captured cell phone video footage of the incident.

As a result of the investigation, TanShanika Carter was taken into custody and now faces multiple charges, including:

Home Invasion

Simple Criminal Damage to Property

Battery of a Dating Partner with a Child Present

Fugitive Warrant (Louisiana State Police)

The Shreveport Police Department takes domestic violence incidents seriously and reminds the public that these situations can escalate quickly and pose significant danger to all involved, especially children. Anyone experiencing domestic violence is encouraged to seek help and report incidents immediately.
