Shreveport Police Obtain Warrants in Whataburger Assault and Burglary Investigation

Jada Bullock (arrested), Bianca Adler, & Tanaia Grace

On November 3, 2025, Shreveport Police responded to a report from a victim employed at Whataburger who stated that a group of females arrived at her workplace, pointed a firearm at her, sprayed her with bear mace, and then entered her vehicle without consent, taking personal belongings.

Whataburger Asset Protection Management provided security camera footage documenting the incident. Through further investigation, detectives identified the three involved suspects as:

- Bianca Adler (Black Female, DOB 03/12/2003), Jada Bullock (Black Female, DOB 08/06/2000), Tanaia Grace (Black Female, DOB 02/19/1997)

Security footage shows Adler and Bullock spraying the victim with bear mace at close proximity. Adler and Grace were then observed entering the victim's vehicle and removing her purse and cell phone.

Bear mace is a federally regulated product intended only as a deterrent for wildlife. Packaging for the product includes mandatory warnings stating that misuse against humans can cause irreversible eye damage and constitutes a violation of federal law. Based on these factors, investigators determined the bear mace qualified as a dangerous weapon under L.A. R.S. 14:2.

On November 21, 2025, arrest warrants were submitted, approved, and signed by the Honorable Judge John Mosley for the following charges:

1. Bianca Adler – Aggravated Battery (L.A. R.S. 14:34) and Simple Burglary (L.A. R.S. 14:62)
2. Jada Bullock – Aggravated Battery (L.A. R.S. 14:34)
3. Tanaia Grace – Simple Burglary (L.A. R.S. 14:62)

The Shreveport Police Department is continuing efforts to locate the suspects. Anyone with information regarding their whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.
