Shreveport Police Arrest Suspect Rape Investigation

Kenneth Sanders

Following an extensive investigation into a rape case from several years ago, detectives with the Shreveport Police Department Sex Crimes Unit have arrested Kenneth Sanders on one count of First-Degree Rape.

Sanders was taken into custody on December 11 and subsequently booked into the Shreveport City Jail.

Under Louisiana Revised Statute 14:42, First-Degree Rape is defined as engaging in sexual intercourse without lawful consent under specific aggravating circumstances, which include but are not limited to situations where the offender uses force or threats of great bodily harm, is armed with a dangerous weapon, or when the victim is incapable of resisting due to age, physical condition, or other circumstances outlined in state law.

Due to the sensitive nature of this investigation and to protect the integrity of the case, no further details are being released at this time.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to pursuing justice in all sexual assault cases, regardless of how much time has passed, and encourages anyone with information related to this or any other crime to contact law enforcement.
