Shreveport Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force Seeks Two Suspects in Felony Theft Investigation – Update

Whitney Pleasant and Demario Jones

Per CrimeStopper tip, detectives gave the tip to patrol officers to execute warrant for Jones. Officers were successful and transported Jones to the city jail.

Received notification that Pleasant was picked up by SPD patrol yesterday. Jones still has an active warrant.

Detectives with the Shreveport–Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force are actively searching for Whitney Pleasant and Demario Jones in connection with an internal theft investigation involving Citi.

The investigation stems from reports of theft occurring in November and December of 2025 at the Citi Trends location in the 3700 block of Jewella Avenue. The business discovered thousands of dollars missing, and both Pleasant and Jones are now former employees.

As a result of the investigation, detectives have obtained arrest warrants for both individuals on charges of felony theft. Investigators are requesting the public's assistance in locating them.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Whitney Pleasant or Demario Jones is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300. Tips may also be submitted anonymously through Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.

Information provided to Crime Stoppers is anonymous, and tips leading to an arrest may be eligible for a cash reward.
