Shreveport Police Seek Public's Help Identifying Theft Suspect

The Shreveport Police Department is requesting assistance from the public in identifying a suspect believed to be responsible for multiple thefts at Walmart located at 1645 E. Bert Kouns Industrial Loop.

According to investigators, the incidents occurred on two separate occasions in June and July, both involving the same offender. In each instance, the suspect entered the store, selected merchandise, proceeded to the self-checkout area, and pretended to complete the transaction before exiting the business without paying. The total loss to the store is nearly $1,000.

The thefts were reported by Walmart Asset Protection, and detectives believe the suspect may be involved in additional thefts in the area.

Suspect Description
