Shreveport Police Arrest Woman Following Domestic Violence Incident

Kendricka Jackson

On January 14, just before 9:00 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a call of an armed person in the 2100 block of Carver Place.

Upon arrival, officers determined a domestic violence incident was in progress involving a male victim and his ex-girlfriend, who is also the mother of his child. Investigators learned that prior to arriving at the residence, the female suspect sent the victim a text message stating that she intended to kill him. The two individuals no longer reside together.

During the investigation, officers determined the suspect was armed with a knife and attempted to stab the victim. The victim was also armed with a firearm; however, witnesses stated he put the firearm down, "I do not want to have to shoot you," and fled from the suspect.

Officers arrested Kendricka Jackson, who has been charged with the following offenses:

- Home Invasion
- Simple Burglary
- Domestic Abuse Aggravated Assault
- Domestic Abuse Battery with a Weapon
- Domestic Abuse with Child Endangerment

The Shreveport Police Department is thankful this incident did not escalate further. Too often, domestic violence situations result in tragic outcomes.

If you or someone you know is experiencing domestic violence, please reach out for help. Resources and support are available, and no one deserves to live in fear.
