Sexual Assault Investigation Results in Arrest

Richard Brock Sr.

The Shreveport Police Department has arrested a local man following a sexual assault investigation involving three juvenile victims.

The investigation began after a report was received through case distribution alleging that three juveniles had been assaulted by a known adult male. Detectives made contact with the reporting person, and forensic interviews were conducted for all three juveniles at a local Child Advocacy Center.

During those interviews, all three juveniles disclosed that they were touched inappropriately by the listed offender on multiple occasions.

As a result of the investigation, Richard Brock Sr. (DOB: 04/25/1954) was arrested and charged with the following offenses:

- Sexual Battery (Victim Under 13) – 2 counts
- Indecent Behavior with a Juvenile – 4 counts

This investigation remains ongoing. Anyone with additional information related to this case is encouraged to contact the Shreveport Police Department.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting children and thoroughly investigating crimes involving the exploitation or abuse of juveniles.
