Shreveport Police Arrest Convicted Felon in Possession of a Firearm

Kajuan Reed

The Shreveport Police Department has arrested another convicted felon for illegally possessing a firearm.

On January 29, just before midnight, members of the Shreveport Police Department's Directed Patrol Unit made contact with Kajuan Reed while he was inside a motor vehicle. During the encounter, officers discovered Reed was in possession of a firearm.

Further investigation revealed that Reed is prohibited from possessing a firearm due to prior convictions, including illegal use of a weapon and narcotics-related offenses. As a result, Reed has been charged with Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon.

Under the leadership of Chief Wayne Smith, the Shreveport Police Department remains committed to aggressively targeting individuals who are legally prohibited from possessing firearms. Removing illegal firearms from the streets is a critical component of our ongoing efforts to reduce violent crime and enhance public safety throughout our community.

The Shreveport Police Department will continue proactive enforcement operations aimed at keeping our neighborhoods safe.
