Domestic Violence Arrest – Child Endangerment

Ella Mineau

On January 30, just after 1:00 p.m., officers with the Shreveport Police Department were dispatched to the 2900 block of Peach Street Apartments in reference to a domestic disturbance.

During the investigation, officers learned that a male resident at the location had an active protective order against a female identified as Ella Mineau. Despite the restraining order, Mineau came to the residence, where an altercation occurred. Officers determined that Mineau bit the male victim on the thigh as he attempted to leave the residence.

The incident occurred in the presence of seven children.

Following the investigation, officers located and arrested Mineau in the 3800 block of Pennock Street. Mineau acknowledged that she was aware of the active protective order against her.

Mineau has been charged with seven counts of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment and Violation of a Protective Order.

The Shreveport Police Department reminds the public that domestic violence has lasting and damaging effects—especially when it occurs in the presence of children. SPD will continue to hold offenders accountable while working to educate the community on the serious dangers and long-term consequences of domestic violence.
