Shreveport Police Arrest Burglary Suspect Following Suspicious Person Call

John Paul Voight

On February 3, just after midnight, officers with the Shreveport Police Department responded to a suspicious person call at 1814 Cotton Street.

Upon arrival, officers observed an individual on the property attempting to conceal himself. The complainant advised officers that they had been monitoring the suspect via surveillance cameras prior to police arrival.

Officers, with assistance from Shreveport Police K-9 units, confronted the suspect. The individual, identified as John Paul Voight, was taken into custody without incident.

Voigt has been charged with one count of Simple Burglary.

The Shreveport Police Department encourages residents to remain vigilant and report suspicious activity immediately, as timely reporting can help officers respond quickly and effectively.
