On February 2, 2026, at approximately 8:00 p.m., officers with the Shreveport Police Department were dispatched to the 2900 block of Logan Street in reference to an armed robbery involving a juvenile victim.

Upon arrival, officers made contact with the 16-year-old victim, who reported he had arranged to meet three males he knew from school to purchase several pairs of shoes. According to the victim, after he handed over the money, one of the suspects, Payton Calvin, produced a firearm and threatened to shoot him if he did not exit the vehicle.
