Female Wanted for Theft

Precious Dillard

Detectives with the Shreveport Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force are actively searching for Precious Dillard in reference to an internal theft investigation involving a Dollar General store located in the 2800 block of Jewella Avenue.

The theft occurred on January 3, 2026, after store management contacted police to report that approximately $1,500 was stolen during one night. Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department responded and conducted a detailed investigation, including a review of surveillance footage.

During the investigation, detectives determined that Dillard had only been employed at the store since December 26, 2025. Surveillance video shows Dillard removing cash from the register drawer, placing the money into a bag hidden beneath a table, and later exiting the store with the bag at the conclusion of her shift.

As a result of the investigation, detectives have obtained an arrest warrant for Precious Dillard on one count of Felony Theft.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Precious Dillard is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department.
