Swift Action by Caddo Parish School Board Leads to Arrest in Classroom Battery Investigation

Tramikal Davis

The Shreveport Police Department is investigating an incident that occurred recently at Youree Drive Middle School involving a former teacher's aide.

Tramikal Davis was serving as a teacher's aide when employees of the Caddo Parish School Board identified behavior they found concerning. Their quick intervention and review revealed that Davis had concerning physical interaction with a special education student inside a classroom setting.

Davis was immediately terminated from his position, and the matter was promptly referred to the Shreveport Police Department and the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) for further investigation.

As a result of the investigation, Davis has been arrested and charged with eight counts of simple battery of the infirm. He is accused of striking a 13-year-old autistic student multiple times.

The Shreveport Police Department commends the swift and decisive action taken by the Caddo Parish School Board and its employees. Their vigilance and commitment to student safety ensured this individual was quickly removed from the school environment and held accountable.

The Shreveport Police Department will continue to aggressively investigate any allegation involving harm to children and remains committed to protecting the most vulnerable members of our community.
