Street Level Interdiction & VCAT Continue Proactive Narcotics Enforcement

Shreveport, LA – Officers with the Shreveport Police Department’s Street Level Interdiction Unit and Violent Crimes Abatement Team (VCAT) have remained actively engaged in proactive enforcement efforts over the past several days, resulting in multiple narcotics-related arrests.

On February 5, 2026, at approximately 10:00 a.m., officers arrested Brandon Strickland for one count of Possession of Schedule II Narcotics.

On February 4, 2026, members of the Street Level Interdiction Unit arrested Tamela Morgan and Ronnie Blunt, both of whom now face charges connected to an ongoing narcotics investigation.

Later, on February 5, 2026, just after 7:00 a.m., Street Level Interdiction officers arrested Troy Johnson after he was found to be in possession of a significant quantity of narcotics. During the arrest, officers also recovered a firearm. Johnson now faces multiple charges related to narcotics and firearms violations.

The Shreveport Police Department will continue proactive enforcement efforts to remove illegal and dangerous substances from our streets and protect the safety of our community.
