Shreveport Police Investigating Home Invasion and Shooting

Byran Clark

On February 8, just after 10:30 p.m., officers with the Shreveport Police Department responded to a reported shooting at 1809 Jenkins Avenue.

Preliminary investigation revealed that Byran Clark and another individual were involved in an incident following a verbal dispute. Detectives believe Clark went to the victim's residence, forced his way inside, and struck the victim multiple times without consent. During the course of the home invasion, a second male was shot.

The individual who sustained the gunshot wound is expected to recover.

Detectives continue to actively investigate the circumstances surrounding the incident to determine if additional charges are warranted. At this time, Byran Clark has been charged with one count of Home Invasion.

This remains an ongoing investigation. Anyone with information is encouraged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.

Further updates will be provided as they become available.
