FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Update – Centaur Parade Incident

Georgie Creamer

The Shreveport Police Department advises that Georgie Creamer has been arrested in connection with the February 7, 2026, altercation that occurred in the 2200 block of Clyde Fant Memorial Parkway during the Centaur Parade. Creamer turned herself in and was booked into the Shreveport City Jail.

We are thankful to the citizens and witnesses who assisted in this investigation. We hope this outcome serves as a reminder and deterrent against inappropriate and criminal behavior in public settings.

The Shreveport Police Department also urges the public to remember there is a very fine line between lawful expression on social media and criminal conduct. Threats directed toward individuals or their families will not be tolerated and may result in criminal charges.

Warrants Issued – Centaur Parade Incident

The Shreveport Police Department has obtained arrest warrants for Georgie Creamer following an altercation that occurred February 7, 2026, around 4:00 p.m. in the 2200 block of Clyde Fant Memorial Parkway during the Centaur Parade.

The investigation, which included review of video circulating on social media and witness statements, revealed Creamer used loud and profane language in a public area and threw a cup containing liquid that struck the victim and a small child.

Warrants have been issued for Disturbing the Peace and Simple Battery.

Anyone with information on Creamer's whereabouts is asked to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.
