FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WHO are we??

On February 23, 2026, at approximately 10:15 p.m., two unidentified men are believed to have been involved in a theft involving a firearm. Investigators have reason to believe the individual wearing a hat removed the firearm, while the second individual, described as a long-haired male, took possession of the magazine.

With the assistance of a local business, detectives obtained surveillance footage from inside a convenience store located in the 4000 block of Jewella Avenue. The investigation remains ongoing.

Anyone who recognizes these individuals or has information related to this case is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department. Tips may also be submitted anonymously through Caddo Crime Stoppers.
