Shreveport Police Seeking Suspect in Motor Vehicle Theft and Hit-and-Run

Trista Shayann Schroeder

The Shreveport Police Department is currently investigating a motor vehicle theft that occurred on February 13, 2026, at approximately 4:00 p.m.

Officers were advised that while at Logan's Roadhouse, a woman reported her daughter had taken her vehicle without consent. Multiple witnesses on scene confirmed the information provided to responding officers.

The suspect has been identified as Trista Shayann Schroeder. Since taking the vehicle, Schroeder has reportedly been involved in at least one hit-and-run crash in Bossier City.

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department have obtained an arrest warrant for Schroeder for one count of Theft of a Motor Vehicle.

The stolen vehicle is described as a 2016 red Hyundai Accent.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Trista Shayann Schroeder is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.
